

At the March 30 neighborhood workshop, participants were asked to indicate on Rustic Hills Subdivision maps where drainage problems exist, both on private properties and on public areas. Red dots on the composite map below indicate the private properties identified as experiencing drainage problems and blue dots indicate the public areas.

